your bi+dentification card

This card acknowledges you as a member of the bi+ community. You may contemplate and/or engage in sexual and/or romantic activity with people of all genders, and use any label(s) for your personal identity (such as bi, pan, queer, and others). Loss of this card means nothing, since a piece of paper doesn't dictate personal identity or orientation. You are bi+ enough.

Your personal label(s)
